

There is a Time

By Rodney Dillard and Mitch Jayne

Key of Dm to play with video on:

<https://www.ezfolk.com>

(Video features clawhammer ukulele but you can use any 4/4 strum that you like)

[Verse 1]

[Dm]

There is a time for love and laughter,

[F] [Dm]

The days will pass like summer storms;

[F] [Dm]

The winter wind will follow after,

[C] [Dm]

But there is love and love is warm.

[Chorus]

[Dm]

There is a time for us to wander,

[F] [Dm]

When time is young and so are we;

[F] [Dm]

The woods are greener over yonder;

[C] [Dm]

The path is new, the world is free.

[Verse 2]

[Dm]

There is a time when leaves are fallin',

[F] [Dm]

The woods are gray, the paths are old;

[F] [Dm]

The snow will come when geese are callin',

[C] [Dm]

You need a fire against the cold.

[Chorus]

[Dm]

There is a time for us to wander,

[F] [Dm]

When time is young and so are we;

[F] [Dm]

The woods are greener over yonder;

[C] [Dm]

The path is new, the world is free.

[Verse 3]

[Dm]

So do your roaming in the springtime,

[F] [Dm]

And you'll find your love in the summer sun;

[F] [Dm]

The frost will come and bring the harvest,

[C] [Dm]

And you can sleep when the day is done.

[Chorus]

[Dm]

There is a time for us to wander,

[F] [Dm]

When time is young and so are we;

[F] [Dm]

The woods are greener over yonder;

[C] [Dm]

The path is new, the world is free.